

An Evening with Zeb Soanes

Friday 21st March

Meals from 6pm

Talk 7.30 £25.00

Talk only £5

For over 20 years, Lowestoft-born Zeb Soanes was the reassuring voice of the BBC Radio 4 News and Shipping Forecast (which celebrates its centenary this year). He now presents his own week nightly show, Relaxing Evenings with Zeb Soanes on Classic FM. He presents concerts with the UK's leading orchestras and is the author of the best-selling Gaspard the Fox series of children's books.

Zeb will join us to talk about his varied career in broadcasting and his exciting project to install a statue of another local boy, the composer Benjamin Britten (created by the Royal sculptor Ian Rank-Broadley), which will be unveiled on Lowestoft seafront this summer. Britten's father was a member of the RNSYC.
